

Transforming your charity by bringing your data to life

Wednesday 13 June 2012, 8.45 am - 12.30 pm

8.45: Doors open – Refreshments

Session A – What is data and why is it transformative?

9.15: Introduction by Chair – David Mills, Voluntary Sector Network Editor, The Guardian

9.25: Welcome from Marnie Webb, Co-CEO & Paul van Haver, Director of Global Data Services, TechSoup Global

9.40: Expert lecture – Dave Coplin, Director of Search, Bing

10.00: Q&A

10.20: Refreshments

Session B – What does data mean for your organisation?

10.40: Introduction - Karl Wilding, Head of Policy, Research and Foresight, National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO)

10.50: Working with data where it matters! – A Case Study by Ushahidi - Nathaniel Manning Director of Business Development and Strategy, Ushahidi

11.10: Best practice & workshop session

11.50: Shared learning

12.20: Closing remarks

12.30: Seminar ends